

shejumps

NWAC

SNOWPACK

AVALANCHE SCHOLARSHIP

PACIFIC NORTHWEST

SheJumps and the Northwest Avalanche Center are joining forces from the PNW in an effort to bring affordable avalanche education opportunities to adult women participating in snow sports in Washington and Oregon. In partnership with Fremont Brewing and K2 Skis, scholarships will be awarded for 30 women to attend AIARE Level 1: Decision Making in Avalanche Terrain courses during the 2021 season, with 50% of scholarship spots earmarked for women of color.

COURSE INFORMATION:

Snoqualmie Pass, WA

January 29-31, 2021 (10 spots)

February 26-28, 2021 (10 spots)

Mount Hood, OR

March 5-7, 2021

WHO CAN APPLY?

Adult women 21+ with a preference towards women of color, underrepresented women, and women in need of financial assistance. Transgender, cisgender, and non-binary people identifying with the women's community are encouraged to apply. Courses are available for skiers, snowboarders, and snowshoers. Previous resort or backcountry experience on skis/snowboards/snowshoes required.

SUPPORTED BY:

HOW TO APPLY?

To apply, visit shejumps.org/snowpack and fill out an application by Saturday, October 31, 2020 at 11:59PM PST to be considered for this scholarship. Applicants will be notified by email of scholarship standing between November 22-29, 2020.